SPECIAL MESSAGE FORM CARLA CATHERWOOD
ORGANIZER FOR 'FOR THE LUV OF IT'

Dear friends and family:)

I am proud to let you know i am producing my favorite kind of event
this christmas season! It's a fundraiser & charity auction for scholarships in the "For the Luv of It! YOUTH & PRO" 2009 season!

I would love each and every one of you to be there and enjoy the festive season together and give back with me to the greater entertainment community you can make it by!

Tickets are few (cappacity is 80ppl) so i don't have a guest list. I feel weird saying sorry you'll have to pay to come, but at least it all goes to a good cause and will be a load of fun for all ages!

Tickets are $45.00 but we will be releasing a few $30.00 tickets to us artists! as $30.00 is just that much more affordable. Just contact me if you want the special rate and hopefully i will have tickets left at that price to get to you:)

If you come, thats wonderful!!! If you don't that's ok too! I still love you all the same! But i know it will be a fun time to get all of us together for the holiday season at least for a few hours! Have some food, out-bid each other on live auction prizes and well just enjoy:) I hope to see my goony crew from mexico!

Info on the event is below if you wish to learn more about it!

MUCH MUCH LUV to you and your family this holiday season!

DANCERS AND TEACHERS: ARE YOU A WRITER?
DANCER STUDIO LIFE MAGAZINE
IF LOOKING FOR SUBMISSIONS IN THE FOLLOWING TOPICS

Because we need your help!

Many of our readers tell us how much they enjoy hearing from other teachers, and that's where you come in. We have an ongoing need for material from you for certain articles and departments in the magazine. Please take a few minutes to look over the following list to see if there's any way you can contribute.

* Humor & Heartstrings: Our new department won't survive without you!

Send us your funny or touching anecdotes about working with kids (50–200 words). Don't know what qualifies? Check out our first batch of "it could happen only to a dance teacher" stories in the January 2009 issue of Dance Studio Life.

* Students Speak Out: student-written essays about dance and dance training. Stories about positive, transformational, challenging, poignant, and humorous experiences from dance students of all ages (500–1,000 words).

* Personal experience or opinion essays for Thinking Out Loud.

Any topic, as long as it's related to dance or dance education. Send an inquiry or a completed essay (750 words).

*Great ideas related to teaching or business, whether it's how to teach a time step or the best way to get organized. See "Collective Wisdom" in the August 2008 issue of DSL for the kinds of ideas we're looking for.

* Is there something that sets you or your school apart from the pack?

It could be a certain areas of expertise, an unusual recital or holiday show, or a unique type of dance class or program. Please describe it in 300 words or less, and we'll contact you if we'd like to hear more.

Send to submissions/questions to: jeff@rheegold.com or Jeff Warzecha, 10 South Washington St., Norton, MA 02766.

Include: Your name, email address and phone number, name of school, city, and state. Please identify what the submission is for in the subject line of your email.

Submission deadline: ongoing

THANK YOU!

I think that covers just about everything. Happy dancing and Happy Holiday!!!

Cheers Loretta
